

9+

ÉTINCELLES

FANTASTIQUE & HUMOR

THE CITY OF SKELETONS

Release Date: April 2021

The series:

Hyacinth is a 10 years old who loves to tell about her life, even if only her dog is listening. She is full of energy and loves her mum's pancakes. She has a good sense of repartee and is always ready to solve a case. Her parents move a lot, and every new place brings different kind of mysteries.

Themes :

humor,
skeleton,
investigation,
friendship,
disappearance.

- A crazy investigation, full of humor and a culprit as nasty as unexpected.
- Will Hyacinth manage to unmask the thief in time?

Hyacinth can't believe her eyes: her new neighbours are skeletons... very much alive ones! When bones go missing and all the fingers are pointed at her dog, Ventouse, Jacinte and her skeleton-friend Casper start investigating.

Ending: They find out that it is a human teacher who is stealing the bones to sell them on the Internet. But the two manage to stop her!

THE AUTHOR

Richard PETITSIGNE is an actor, storyteller, director of the Troll Company, trainer and facilitator of theatre and storytelling workshops. He accompanies school projects and as soon as he has some time left, he writes stories about pirates, fennecs, paparazzi, supermarkets, knights and lately, skeletons...

THE ILLUSTRATORS

Romane POCH (The City of Skeletons & Plaza Witches) is often on the road! Coming from the animated film and video game world, she is a concept artist/illustrator. She also likes to work on illustrated projects. It's another way of telling stories: the image is full of richness and poetry.

Hendy MARY (The Pond of Mermaids) is a 2D animator by training. Since 2020, he is freelance, and his field of expertise extends from video to illustration, through logo creation, motion design or comic strips.

Collection
Fiction

Genres
Mystery
Fantastique

Readership
From 9

Retail Price
12,50 € VAT inc.

Format
14 x 22 cm
176 pages

Foreign rights: Caroline Merceron, caroline.merceron@gulfstreamediteur.fr

Executive director: Stéphanie Baronchelli, stephanie.baronchelli@gulfstreamediteur.fr

Full catalogue available here:
<https://gulfstream.fr/foreign-rights/>

31, rue Alfred-Riom
44100 Nantes (FRANCE)
tél : 02 40 48 06 68

www.gulfstream.fr

Gulf stream éditeur

Will Hyacinth find the antidote to save her family in time?

Hyacinth, and her family move to the Plaza Witches. But soon, she realises her parents and her dog have been cursed and they're losing their minds! With the help of two witches, will Hyacinth be able to identify the guilty witch and get the antidote from her?

Ending: Hyacinth suspects her old neighbours, but finds out the culprit is the sister of her two friends-witches. Unmasked, she accepts her wrongs and reconciles with her sisters.

Themes: humor, witch, investigation, friendship, dance, spells.

Release Date: February 2022

Release Date: January 2023

THE POND OF THE MERMAIDS

Will Hyacinth be able to solve the mystery of the mermaid in time?

Hyacinth, and her family move to the Pond of the mermaids. They learn that Mr Marmalade, a local resident, wants to create a modern amusement park near the pond to make money. Soon, Hyacinth notices that dead fish are rising to the surface of the pond. And the mermaid appears right after, in a very bad shape. With her friend Joris, they decide to hide her and feed her, before trying to discover her story. Soon after, Joris and the mermaid are kidnapped!

Ending: She discovers that their captor is none other than Mr Marmelade who wants to use the mermaid as an attraction in his circus. His plans are foiled thanks to Hyacinth and her friends. As for the mermaid, a local resident takes her back to the Caribbean Sea, where she belongs.

Themes: humor, mermaid, investigation, friendship, museum, kidnapping, conflict of interest.